

TRAM reinforces the services during December and the Christmas holidays

- TRAM modifies frequencies and end times on key days in December and January to adapt to the expected demand for these dates
- On New Year's Eve there will be continuous service throughout the night

Barcelona, December 2, 2025. - On the occasion of the December long weekend, Christmas holidays, open business holidays and New Year's Eve, TRAM adapts the timetables and frequencies of passage to the expected increase in mobility during the months of December and January.

December weekend

On December 6 and 7, the frequencies will be those of a Saturday and the service will end at 2 a.m. On the holiday of December 8, the frequencies will be those of a Saturday in Trambaix and those of a Sunday in Trambesòs, on both networks the service will end at the usual time, midnight.

Open business holidays

On Sundays and public holidays with shops open (December 8, 14, 21 and 28 and January 4 and 11), the frequencies on Trambaix will be those of a Saturday and the service will end at the usual time, midnight. The frequencies on Trambesòs will not vary and will be those of a Sunday.

Christmas holidays

On the night of December 24, the frequencies will be the usual ones for a weekday, with the last departures from the terminals at 10 p.m. On Christmas Day, December 25, and Saint Stephen's Day, December 26, the frequencies will be those of a Sunday in Trambaix and those of a Saturday in Trambesòs, with service until 2 a.m. on both networks.

New Year's Eve and 2026

On New Year's Eve, December 31, there will be uninterrupted TRAM service throughout the night.

On Sunday, January 5, the schedules may be altered depending on the route of the Three Kings processions in the different municipalities on the tram network, while the frequencies will be those of a Friday and the service will end at 2 am.

Finally, on January 6, Epiphany, service on the entire TRAM network will end at midnight with the frequencies of a Sunday.

TRAM reminds passengers that updated timetables and real-time service information are always available at www.tram.cat and on the TRAM App .
